...1840's. A kind accident was an early unintentional connection for the very first time
"Cuma msa Hava is good!"
Robert Harris was hooked and with passion, captivated by espresso and infatuated with fresh coffee.
Unfortunately for Robert, post-war New Zealand had nothing like the Robert imported his own green

"To give Do-It-Yourself users the Harris line in Hamilton means a fresh coffee factory giving new meaning to 'the family man'."
Many years and several times later Robert Harris coffee was ready for the world.
Well, for the local folks, that is, where Robert ground coffee for Dunedin customers.
Like the pioneering aroma of his blends, his reputation is still fresh.
